Berlin Report Tells of Capture of 1000 Yards of Trenches Northeast of Avocourt.

BERLIN. April 3, by wireless to Say ville.-A 12,000-ton Russian transport with troops and war materials aboard was sunk by a Turkish submarine or March 30, the Turkish War Office announced today.

The Turkish statement says:

"Turkish submarines on March 30 sank place, through which everyone passed sooner or later in the time of the Sudan a Russian transport of about 12,000 rons with troops and material, and on March $1 sank another ship of 1500 tons and one sailing ship. Yesterday fighting on the whole was not unfavorable to the French, it is authoritatively stated. The object of the Germans was to clear the approaches to Fort Douaumont and 15,000 men were thrown forward on the mile-and-a-half line between Douaumont fort and the village of Vaux. The attacking forces succeeded in crossing a little ravine which hitherto had stopped them and in entering the Calllette wood, further east they dislodged the French from the ed houses of the village of Vaux. but French positions were so placed as to make it practically impossible for the Germans to debouch from the village. 3 BIG BRITISH STEAMERS SUNK

Two of More Than 7000 Tons, Other of 4000-Loss of Life Reported.

LONDON. April 3.—Submarine activity continues, today's dispatches showing a number of ships sunk.

The British liner Achilles was sunk Friday. Four members of the crew are missing. The captain and $2 other persons from the steamer have been landed.

The Achilles was in the trade between Australia and England. She was a vessel of 7042 tons gross.

The British steamer Goldmouth has seen sunk and her crew, two members of which suffering from injuries, was landed at Penzane, says a Lloyds dispatch from that place dated Saturday. The Goldmouth was of 766 gross tons. The British steamship Ashburton has been sunk by shrapnel shells fired by a German submarine. Five members of the crew have been taken to a hos-

Captured Bandits Say Leader Is Being Carried Farther Into the Hills in his Jolting Coach-Americans Close Behind Him When He Fled From Village.

CAMP OF GEN. J. J. PERSHING, AT THE FRONT, April 2, by aeroplane to Colonia Dublan, and by radio to Columbus, N. M., April 3 .- American cavalrymen encountered a fleeing force of Villa men near (----) early today and sounds of heavy firing have been heard from that direction, but no report has been made to headquarters of the results.

The mountains of Guerrero are being combed thoroughly for Villa himself by the American forces, but nothing has been learned as to his whereabouts other than that captured bandits said he was being carried farther into the mountains in his jolting coach.

Gen. Pershing announced today that troops of the infantry are to be used for mountain climbing in the search for Villa, co-operating with the cavalrymen, who have borne the brunt of the five days' pursuit of the broken bandit. The infantrymen have been going through hardening preparation in hill-climbing marches for about two weeks, and about officers day they are in excellent physical trim,

The troops were closely behind Villa yesterday entering the village of -) shortly after be had fled from it. It was suspected that he might be hidden in one of its buts and every precaution was taken to effect the capture. Two squadrons of cavalry entered the village from opposite sides simultaneously. Every preparation has been made for an engagement which failed to develop. There have been a number of minor skirmishes in the vicinity of the village, two scouts reporting that they encountered two Villa nen on its outskirts yesterday and fought for five minutes without casualties. American air scouts are now flying over the entire Villa territory and are arrying dispatches from the front to the field base and field headquarters. Motor trucks also have been able to penetrate the mountain waste almost as far as the territory occupied by the cavalry under Col. George A. Dodd.

CACKLE OF THE GRACKLE WAKES WESTMORELAND FOLK AT DAWN

No Late Slumbers Possible Since Hundreds of Birds Took Pos-session of Trees. The bronse grackje, a specie of blackbird, recently have taken abode in the west part of Westmoreland place, greatly to the discomfort of residents there. They are there in hundreds, and the greatest objection to them is that about dawn each day they set up a chatter that wakes even the soundest sleepers. Westmoreland residents have tried to rout them by shooting roman candies into the trees, by turning a hose on the roosting birds at night, and by placing lights in trees. These efforts have been futile, and residents think the only way to make the birds move on is by shooting a few of them. An ordinance prohibits the discharge of firearms within the

DIE BEFORE ONE YEAR

The Census Bureau estimates that 300,000 babies died in this country last year before the age of one year, and it is stated that one-half of these deaths were needless if all mothers were strong and all infants were breast-fed.

Expectant mothers should increase their strength with the strength-building fats in Scott's Emulsion which improves the blood, suppresses nervousness, aids the quality of milk and feeds the very life cells.

Physicians prescribe Scott's Emulsion; it is doubly important during nursing. Every druggist has it. Always insist on Scott's-the white foodmedicine. Always free from alcohol.

Boxer, Efficiently Developed Type of Bulldog, to Compete for Honors in That Class. 500 ENTRIES AT ARMORY

Terriers Lead in Lists With Air dale a Close Second; Many Wear Blue Ribbons.

Russian wolfhounds turned up the aristocratic noses at Prussian sheep dogs and German boxers strained at the leash to invade the stronghold of British bulldogs at the opening of the Mississippi Valley Kennel Club's ninth annual bench show at the First Regiment Armory today. The show opened at 10 a. m. and will continue until 10 p. m.,

Experts who looked over the 500 entries said it promised to be the best dog show St. Louis ever had, so far as quality is concerned. This is due to the fact that this is the last big show of the season. At the shows which have pre-ceded it in other cities the inferior dogs have been eliminated and most of those season. At the shows which have prewhich were brought here are ribbon winners.

The most spirited contest is expected to develop in the Boston terrier class in which more than 50 high-grade animals are entered. There is added local interest in this class because of the entry of Halloo Prince, a champion owned by Mrs. James A. Corbett of 5588 Waterman avenue. This dog will compete in the prize ring with the champions of all the German Boxer a Novelty. A novelty is the German Boxer, a type of dog never before exhibited in St. Louis. The Boxer is another evidence of German efficiency—an instance of what the thorough-going German can do when he starts out to develop a distincbreeder's ambition apparently was realized, for the Boxer bears no resemblance to his hated rival, the British Another German product shown here is the sheep dog, totally unlike his Scotch prototype. This is the dog which is used in many cases for police work. The entrants here will give exhibitions of their skill in picking up scents and capturing criminals.

Airedales are second in number to the Boston terriers and are also second in the percentage of the entries owned by St. Louisans. Though in time of war the Airedale is full of Scottish loyalty to the crown, it is his private boast that he is the only dog in the world that can whip a British bulldog in a fair and square stand-up fight.
The Sealingham terrier, whose prow-

CHICAGO HEAD OF HOSPITAL UNDER INQUIRY, KILLS SELF

CHICAGO, April 3 .- Dr. Theodore B. Sachs, head of the municipal tu-berculosis hospital, killed himself with morphine Sunday in the library of his private sanitarium at Napertution into what he termed a "city hall job factory."

Before taking the poison he wrote a message asking the City Council to "make a thorough inquiry" into the institution, and to "thwart unscrupulous politicians." Also he wrote to the community to resist "any attempt of unscrupulous contractors to appropriate money which tractors to appropriate money which belongs to the sick and poor."

The charges against Dr. Sach's was "waste" and "extravagance." This he strongly denied. Why Did the Post-Dispatch Print More For Sale Wants Last Month Than the Four Other St. Louis

GREEK POLITICS

Former Premier Declares Country Is at Verge of Economic and Moral Bankruptcy.

HE ATTACKS POLITICIANS

Replies to Recent Interview by King Constantine in First of Series of Newspaper Articles.

ATHENS, April 3.-Former Premier Venizelos has resumed active participation in Greek politics by replying in the Herald, his personal organ, to King Constantine's recent interview published n the Berliner Tageblatt.

The article, occupying an entire page, eviews completely the position of the Freek monarch since the dissolution of the last Chamber of Deputies and calls attention to what the ex-Premier terms the Government.

Venizelos, in communicating to the Associated Press the text of his article. said it was the first of a series dealing exhaustively with the present situation of Greece. With regard to a possible change in the political complexion of Greece, he said that he could see no prospect of any alteration in the present Government without immense pressure through public sentiment.

Attacks Politicians.

In his article the former Premier accuses politicians in power of intriguing to create personal animosities between King Constantine and himself. Referring to the King's alleged characterization of his former Minister as a dreamer, Venizelos says:

"By keeping the country in a state of chronic peaceful warfare through purposeless mobilization, the present Goverrment has brought Greece to the verge of economic, material and moral bankruptcy. This policy, unhappily, is not a dream, but downright folly."

He reviews his own political course from the time Sir Edward Grey, the British Secretary for Foreign Affairs, promised concessions in Asia Minor, 'equal in extent and vastly richer than all of Greece at the present time," and

"If King George in 1912 had taken the stand King Constantine took in 1915 he would have been the cause of the cernow happily realized."

Fear Bulgarian Aggression.
Venizelos lays great stress on the Bulgarian peril for Greece, pointing out that the utmost to be gained from the resent policy would be to leave Greece the same size, while Bulgaria, flushed with victory, trained by war, enlarged by the addition of Servia and Macenia and allied with the Turks, would not wait long before falling upon its outhern nelghbor.
"Who thinks," he declares, "that under those conditions Greece could, un-aided, drive the Bulgars from Macedonia once they have seized it, is a cool. The politicians who do not now see this inevitable danger are blind, and unfortunate are the Kings following such politicians, and more unfortunate still the lands whose sovereigns fall their victims."

With reference to the royal thesis that Germany guarantees that the Bulgars will evacuate Greek Macedonia, Venizelos impales the Government on the horns of the dilemma that if Ger-many's assurances were formal and necessary, while if the assurances are not trustworthy, mere passive armed watching of Bulgaria increasing in size and resources would be wholly insuffi-

BACON'S LUNCHEON TAKEN FOR A BOOST

Leaders Think Hughes Won't Run and That Root Does Not Seriously Seek Presidency.

FAVOR PATRIOTIC ISSUES

Friends of Roosevelt Think He Will Enter Race Openly Before the Convention.

Special to the Post-Dispatch, OYSTER BAY, L. I., April 3.—The different conclusions arrived at for publication by political leaders in various parts of the country after hearing of the Roosevelt-Root-Lodge reconciliation luncheon at the home of Robert Bacon in New York on Friday were read with the greatest interest here today. To clerify the situation these statements may be made:

1. Col. Roosevelt has not entered into any agreement with Root and Lodge and does not at this time contemplate entering any agreement which would bind him to aid in a movement to advance the efforts of some Republican leaders to nominate Supreme Court Justice Charles Evans Hughes as the Republican standard

2. Ex-Senator Elihu Root did not seek the support of Col. Roosevelt in an effort to obtain the nomination for himself (Root), and, in fact, has, according to a thoroughly reliable ource, made it known definitely that he is not seriously in the race for the Terms Under Which Colonel Might Run.

3. Col. Roosevelt, if convinced the country was aroused to the frame of mind he termed "heroic," would consider it his duty to accept a nomina-tion at the Republican convention and, with the Progressive party be-hind him, seek to overthrow the Wilson administration which he, as well as Root and Lodge, has charged with the responsibility of placing this atry in an ignoble position in its relation with other nations.

4. Col. Roosevelt, as well as some of the Republican leaders who are ready to support him, it is said, is now convinced that Hughes is not the man to unite the Republican and Progressive parties and conduct the campaign for these parties against Wilson on the lines outlined by Root in his bellicose, Rooseveltian address before the Republican State convention in New York, an address which was generally accepted at the time as the keynote of the Republican campaign.

5. A number of the Republican leaders, including Root and Lodge, it is reported, have decided that the best there shall be no more delay in making the appeal to the patriotic instincts of the people, and have come to the conclusion that Hughes will stand by his determination not to enter into any such campaign or ap-pear as a candidate in any sense of the word, at least before the national ventions of the Republican and Progressive parties, to meet on med up, the conclusions reached by the Roosevelt adherents amount to this: They are convinced absolutely that Col. Roosevelt is not working in the interests of Root or Hughes, and that Root, Lodge Bacon knew this when they me the Colonel at luncheon, knowing that the reconcillation would be reported all over the country and could not but act in favor of any ambitions the Colonel may have had to get back to the White House and guide the policies of this nation in the period of reconstruction which will follow the end of the Eurcpean war.

Furthermore, the conclusion has been reached that the political leaders who are bitterly opposed to Roosevelt and refused to accept the luncheon as a sig-nal to get into line for the Colonel, or at least hold off pending further devel-opments, had, in their statements from Washington and other points, attempted in their confusion and amazement to place upon it an interpretation which would soften any favorable effect so far as the Colonel was concerned and at the same time make the luncheon appear as a boost for the nomination of Hughes of Root and especially for the former.

These leaders, it is held, were running around in circles, their minds in a whirt for hours after they first heard of the iuncheon, endeavoring to discover some way in which they could steal this new thunder of the Colonel's and turn it to their own advantage by making it advance the interests of the candidate they

These views are given added weigh by the fact that visitors who have journeyed to Sagamore Hill are for the most part convinced, on coming away, that the Colonel will appear openly as a most formidable candidate for the Republican nomination when the convention meets in Chicago, if not before that time. None of his political advisers to whem has felt that he was ready to back

The fact that former Senator Root has appeared as one of the most prom if not the dominant, figure of the Re-publican party of the nation, of late has added to the importance of the situation which his resonciliation with Roosevelt created. Root has taken the front of the platform, overshadowing National Chairman Hilles, Gov. Whitman, Sena-tor Penrose, Murray Crane or any other person high in the party councils whose manner may be mentioned.

TOKIO, March 10.—Japanese you en resident in California are return Japan in increasing numbers seek brides, and the old-time habit of oosing wives by photograph is topidly becoming extinct. The former system developed many evils, and the Japanese authorities who are working for the welfare of Japanese in the United States have been doing all possible to have it abolished. THE BAKER & TAYLOR CO., Selling Agents, 334 Fourth Avenue NEW YORK

Announcing Our Annual Spring Surplus Stock Sale of

"LA VOGUE" SUITS & COATS

The One Sale You'll All Recognize and Welcome

THE SALE that hundreds of you have asked us about during the last week or so. THE SALE that thousands of you have, WE KNOW, been waiting for and wondering how long you'd have to wait. THE SALE that always sets a new selling record. THE SALE that really needs no introduction to the women of St. Louis and vicinity, further than to say it's a "La Vogue" Sale-

And It Offers "La Vogue" Suits and Coats at 1/2 Price and Less

Up to $18 Coats,

Up to $35 Suits,

Up to $25 Coats.

Twice yearly—and only twice—April and November—is this opportunity given to buy La Vogue Suits and Coats at HALF PRICE and LESS. At Garland's, and Garland's only can you buy La Vogue Coats and Suits in St. Louis, as we are sole distributers here. As said above, we hardly think La Vogue needs any introduction—except to those who may not yet have worn a La Vogue Suit or Coat. To those we will say that the word "La Vogue" is a synonym of correct style—guaranteed fabrics and dependable tailoring. They are shape-retaining. The cloths are guaranteed all wool. The linings are guaranteed for two seasons' wear. Those are the things that the "La Vogue" Company guarantees—and back of that is the Garland guarantee.

687 Suits in This Sale

To describe them would be to name every Spring fabric of popularity—to speak of every favored color—to tell of every current style shown this season—and dozens that will be seen in this sale for the first time.

Some of the Coats are short, very short. Some are quite long. But neither too extreme. Silk and braid trimming. Buttons and "more buttons" applied in a most pleasing way. Wide collars of silk. Bell cuffs, fancy revers, shirred backs, etc. Skirts are both wide and short. Choice Tuesday, $16.95.

759 Coats in This Sale

There are 50 styles, and like the Suits, you couldn't pick out a "bad" one if you tried. We doubt if you can mention a coating fabric that you'll not find here. The color range is equally complete and comprehensive.

These are white Coats for "sport" wear. Lots of plaids and checks. Plenty of the new Britannia mixtures, plain cloths, too. poplins, wool velour, gabardine, covert, serge, golfine, chinchilla, etc., etc. Belted models, swing-from-shoulder styles, fancy collars, ouffs and revers. Everything in coatdom, and sizes for everybody. Choice Monday at $9.85 aid $14.75.

Sale Starts at 8:30 Tuesday. Suits 3rd Floor-Coats 4th Floor

State Ticket as Well as National Delegates to Be Named at Kansas City Today.

By GEORGE W. EADS, A Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch. KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 3.—T. R. matum which the 700 delegates to the Progressive State convention, in ses-sion here today to elect delegates to the Bull Boose national convention in Chicago June 7, are going to serve on the Republicans. And as proof that they mean business the State convention will make a preferential nomination of an entire State ticket, headed by Judge Albert D. Nortoni of St. Louis as candidate for United States Senator and Joseph P. Fontron of Kansas City for

Missouri Republicans have been declarica that the Bull Moose movement war dead in this State, but the Roose-velt party is showing every indication here today of being as much alive as in 1912. The Republican leaders of Missouri admit that unless they can win back the Progressives they will have no

Strategic Position Good.
The Bull Moose leaders realize value of their strategic position and ar confident the Republicans, seeing the nevitable, will nominate Roosevelt in Chicago and that the Progressive and Republican electoral tickets of the several states will be amalgamated. Every elegate to the State convention is Roosevelt hero worshipper, and nearly every one is a candidate for delegate o the national convention.

elegates are surprizing. "Never before," said Ford Thompson, st. Louis lawyer, "was the tail in such E. Pinkham's Vegetasplendid position to wag the dog; the tail in this instance being the Progressive party and the dog the Republican party. And the tail is going to wag the dog and get everything it demands, which, first, last and all the time, is Roosevelt for President.

The Republicans will have to nominate im and adopt the principles of the Bull loose party of 1912. We have been waiting for this advantage for four years nd we are going to make the best pos-

Rural Delegates Force Issue. The Rumsev-Mayor fight in the De ratic Stare convention, which brought orward the issue of law enforcement gainst the liquor interests in the cities has had such effect in the country that the rural delegates to this convention are all eage: to make a demonstration of their opposition to saloon and crew ery control of politics, and to that en they are going on record as favoring the destruction of the entire business in the United States and will demand that Congress submit a prohibition amend ment to the states for ratification.

Convention Called to Order.
The convention was called to order at 11 a. m. by Geo. W. Schweer, chairman of the Progressive State Committee. Inocation was delivered by the Rev John L. Brandt of St. Louis.

Chairman Schweer said the national ommittee, at his request, had granted permission for the election of double the allotted number of delegates to the National Convention, each delegate to have one-half vote, and that the State committee authorized the convention to elect 40 delegates instead of 20. Schwee said the convention was remarkable be cause every delegate wanted to go to the Chicago convention as a delegate. When he said "every delegate to this convention wants Teddy for President," there was a great outburst of applaus among the delegates and the familiandary," We want Teddy," was taken up by the delegates.

After appointing committees the convention took a recess until 2 p. m.

Address by Fontron,
An appeal to all parties to nominat Roosevelt for President was made by Fontron in an address as temporary hairman of the convention.

"From the remotest confines of our land the cry and demand of the common people of all parties," said Fontron, "is we want Roosevelt for President.' After the other houses hav burned down or the fires have been put out, some of the fire apparatus may be disposed of, but a reasonable amoun should be kept on hand at all time with good, trained firemer in charge.

Favors Tariff Board. Fontron said the party was in favor of the establishment "under proper safeguards of a permanent, nonpartisa tariff board, to pass upon the schedule in the light of constant changes, and to raise or lower then; when they threaten to endanger any particular industry o rights of the consumer or of labor con nected with such industry.'

As a remedy for trusts, which he charged flourish under existing laws fontron declared the party was in favor of the establishment of a bureau of Fed eral control, "to have supervision of all individuals, concerns and corporation loing an interstate business, hevinpower to deal with publicity, rates prices, supply and demand, issuance and ownership of stock, and to bear much he same relation toward such business as the Interstate Commerce Commission

Southern Illinois Association Meets Here to Fix Winter and Summer Rates to Dealers.

Eight members of the executive boar of the Southern Illinois Milk Producers ssociation met at the Laclede Hote Louis dealers to agree to pay a uniform ner price and a uniform winte price for milk.

word "strike" was not used B. A. Brooks, president, and N. Baum, secretary, of the association, which has a membership of 1800 farmers, in discussing the situation with a Post-Dispatch reporter, but both said that unless some uniformity of price is agreed upon farmers will find it more profile. pon, farmers will find it more profit able to use their milk as food for pig-than to sell it to the St. Louis dealers. Brooks said that it is probable that the producers will demand a flat rate of $1.40 per 100 pounds of milk for six months of the year and $1.75 per 100 pounds for the other six months.

About 3 Cents a Quart.
One hundred pounds of milk represents 0 quarts, so that at the proposed summer rate, beginning April 1, the pro-lucers are asking a little less than 3 ents a quart for milk delivered in bulk at receiving stations along the railroads. Brooks said that at the present time farmer never knows what he is going to receive for his mik until he receives a monthly check from the dealer. At presfarmers are determined to do away with ich uncertain conditions.

For the milk for which the farmer i id less than 2 cents a quart under the 0-cent rate, the dealers are getting ents a quart on city deliveries. The Southern Association extends ove bout 35,000 gallons of milk a day.

"The great complaint of the farmer the uncertainty of price," said oks, who has a farm at Marine, Ill 'The dealers secure a uniform price to e milk they sell. They wouldn't stay n business long if they were forced to accept whatever their customers fel change their retail prices in winter and the farmers are simply asking to have their end of the business put upon au which at times the farmers receive less than 2 cents a quart must pass a test of 3.4 per cent butter fat.

When asked regarding reports that farmers in Northern Illinois have begun feeding 500,000 quarts of milk daily to pigs as a protest against the prices paid by Chicago dealers, Brooks said that ne could not comment upon condition n Northern Illinois, but he knew tha he producers there are getting better prices than the southern producers and that if the northern producers are in rebellion that the feelings of the farm ers in the southern section of the State can be imagined easily.

20 Londs of Milk Dumped Into Streets in Riot Near Chicago, CHICAGO, April 3.—While mem-

tion, who are attempting to secure higher prices for their product by shutting off the supply, were prospected dairies was being shipped into the city, rioting continued in districts where farmers attempted to trade with dealers.

Several persons were reported injured at Dundee. Members of the Producers' Association picketed the roads leading to the milk plants and when "insurgents" endeavored to run the blockade they were attacked. Deputy Sheriffs were called and order was restored only after a skir mish during which 20 loads of milk were dumped into the streets.

·Rioting at Gilberts was stopped only after 22 cans of milk were dumped into the streets. More than 100 farmers were reported to have 100 farmers were reported to have gone from Huntley and other towns to Hampshire to picket the roads.

Milk inspectors, called into conference by Dr. J. D. Robertson, Health Commissioner of the city, said the situation had a serious aspect and that a severe milk shortage would appear if the farmers persisted in withholding their milk for two or three weeks. Dr. Robertson took steps to prevent deterioration in the quality of milk received in Chicago and announced that bulletins would be issued advising citizens to conserve their supply.

GENERAL IN THIS

Review by William McC. Martin Shows It Is Spreading Into the Realty Field.

Business in virtually every line is prosperous throughout the St. Louis Federal Reserve District, according to the March review by William McC. Martin, Federal Reserve Agent, pub-lished today in the Federal Reserve Bulletin at Washington. Martin writes business review each month, based pon reports received from all sections of the district, which embraces the greater part of Missouri, Southern Illi-nois and Indiana, Western Kentucky and Tennessee, Mississippi and Arkan-

The report shows that the prosperity The report snows that its spreading of into real estate and that building permits are showing an increase.

"The active, prosperous condition of all but ess interests in this district, which has been noted in the last two tinues," Martin reports. "In general, it may be said that February was noted for increases in price in practically every line, and for the marked scarcity of raw products in probably a majority of the manufacturing indusries.

"Practically all classes of merchants report that the question of delivery is more important to them than that of price. The price of raw material in many branches has gone up by leaps and bounds during the past 90 days, but even so, there seems to be no slacking in the demand for finished articles, even at a marked increase in cost. Retailers as well as wholesalers feel the result of this activity, and practically all of the large department stores in St. Louis report record business for the month of

Spread of Revival.

"The revival of business seems to have pread from merchants and manufacturers to the building trade, and, in turn, to operators in real estate. There has been a marked increase in the building permits in the large cities, and this, among other causes, has contributed to the recent rise in price of lumber and other building materials. Large transfers of real estate are noted from day to day and, in general, the real estate market is more active than it has been for "The railroads operating in this disrict continue to show gains, equal to, or higher than, those reported during December. The increase in net earnings during December was particularly noticeable in the roads operating in the northern section of District No. 8. The increases noted for January, 1916, seem to be more general, every trunk line in the district showing substantial gains in gross and net earnings as compared to last year. A month or two ago, a car shortage was reported from this district, and this situation continues at this time. However, it is not so serious as to impair noticeably the movement of freight, but is nevertheless receiving the careful consideration of railroad op-

The report says figures on the winter wheat crop in this district have been compiled from private sources, and that it appears the acreage is somewhat smaller than previously reported.

"Serious damage has been reported from portions of the district, particularly the south-central part of Missouri, but the general opinion from those in a position to judge seems to be that it is yet too early to make any definite forecast on the 1916 crop. It appears difficult to estimate the extent of damage reported in certain localities until the frost is out of the ground and it can be definitely determined whether the roots of the wheat are killed.

Cotton Was Profitable. "The 1915 cotton crop was profitable to Southern planters, and their pros-perity had its effect on the season's demand for mules from the southern part of this territory, this year's business being a distinct improvement as compared to that of 1915. The supply of cattle, hogs and sheep has been somewhat limited in the past 30 days, and this is, in a measure, the cause of the marked increase in price which is noted. Cattle and hogs have advanced materially and the demand continues active. The trend of the horse market seems to be upward, and it is reported that the United States Government is in the market for horses suitable for army brokers report a somewhat well defined feeling that rates will be stronger in the near future. The bank loan rate to customers is, if anything, lower than it has been for several months. The average in St. Louis is probably around 4½ per cent, with proportionately higher rates in other parts of the district as the size of the community increases.

"The general impression among those well informed seems to be that the money market is somewhat unsettled, due to possible complications with the defacts Government of Mexico. It seems probable that, in spite of the large accumulation of reserves throughout the country, rates are now as low as they may reasonably be expected to be, and that the increased activity in all business will have its due effect and cause a somewhat firmer market."

FOR NEW SCHOOLS

Board of Education Will Probably Ask for a Special Election in June.

REGARDED AS BEST PLAN

Buildings Badly Needed to Relieve Congestion-Life of Securities About 20 Years.

The Board of Education has deterined to ask for a bond issue for the ublic schools. The additional funds are held to be necessary to erect new buildings to relieve the congestion. Herecontended that by rigid economy of adinistration enough funds might be available from the regular revenue to provide for new buildings. These memers, however, have finally become convinced that a bond issue is the only solution of the financial problem and is preferable to attempting to run the schools on curtailed funds or to a tax inrease. It is understood that a special bond election will be authorized, to be held as soon after the June meeting of the board as possible.

Pavors a 20-Year Bond.
Dr. J. P. Harper, president of the board, said a bond issue was favored by the board because the members felt that school buildings erected now would stand for 75 years and future generations struction. He said the board would probably authorize 20-year bonds. The general revenue of the board is sufficient to maintain the present struction courses and buildings and the ney raised by a bond issue would be used in furthering the building program of the board. The amount of the bond issue has not been decided upor will not be for less than $1,000,000.

Herman Mauch, chairman of the Finance Committee of the board, who has been the chief opponent of those who have been advocating immediate steps to relieve the condition of the board's finances, said he had concluded a bond issue, he said.

Will Have Special Election. Several members of the board said the bond issue would be submitted at a spe-cial election and not at a general election, because of a provision of the State statutes which provides that such issues submitted at a general election must receive a two-thirds vote of the total cast, regardless of the fact that many might not vote either way on the proposition. The cost of a special election is about $70,000, which will be paid by the city The proposition at a special election will require a two-thirds majority to pass. The board has the power to initiate the election by its vote alone and will not be required to have the approval of the municipal government before the matter can be submitted to the voters. Supt. Blewett, in his report to the board, recommended means of financin the building program of the next five years, to relieve the general revenue he burden. He estimated that, for the ve years' period, about $4,000,000 was eeded for school buildings in all secions. The average cost of a moder. 000 to $300,000.

The members of the board, Supt. Blewett said today, seem impressed with the idea that some action of the sort recommended must be taken, and they are all favorable, he believes, to the bond issue idea.

FREE BRIDGE USEFULNESS.

With the present certainty that one big railroad system will avail itself of the use of St Louis' municipal bridge of course many will avail themselves of it later-President E. R. Kinsey of the Board of Public Service has a new vision of free bridge usefulness.

"In the first place," he says, "I was a doubter as to the value of the free bridge. But now I can say that it is going to be a far more valuable asset to the city than we have believed. I know the railroad game and I know what the city was up against, but the city has secured what it de-

The last stage of the work on the great struc ture is the most creditable to city efficiency and good judgment. Its progress has been as rapid as could be expected. Early placing of the contracts for steel effected a saving of a quarter of million dollars as compared with present prices. It is said that several hundred thousand of the were wise they would not only obey the law, but appropriation will be returned to the treasury.

There were many St. Louisans who refused to see or were unable to see the meaning of the free bridge conception. It will not be long before all the doubters will be convinced that former predictions as to the place it might have in St. Louis' further upbuilding were understatements.

At a time when it is in order to cast verbal wreaths on Shakspeare's bier, a New York critic, whose specialty is motion picture reviewing, seems to have "said something." He broke away Sir Herbert Tree's production of "Henry VIII." and his enthusiastic comment was, "It's so good alike. that you'd never know it was Shakspeare!"

PIE IN PORTO RICO.

Civilization has begun with a vengeance in Porto Rico, where American pie has been introuced on a scale. From a San Juan corresndent we read:

Pie, it is estimated, in the course of a single week has established itself firmly in at least Its praises had never been sung.

This mode of benevolent assimilation promise to do more to inculcate a kindly feeling towards the United States than 16 years of legislation conferences, pleadings, experiments and bloodshed, and as a means of introducing our culture is hardly short of magic. Ple is an institution that quickly takes root, and instantly induces benignity. It made the early Indians friendly to New England and played a rapid and important part in their subjugation and extermination. An invasion of Islam with apple pie would speedily undermine Mohammedanism. Pie in sufficient quantities and assortments might indeed pacify oubled Europe.

But much depends on the proper crust,

LADY NICOTINE.

Mrs. George Washington Lopp, whose bounties to the French and English soldiers have earned for her the title of Lady Nicotine, is taking them 2,500,000 eigarettes, 42,000 pounds of smoking tobacco and 422 gross of corncob pipes. While we appreciate the peculiar benevolence of this greathearted, noble-souled woman, we cannot forbear the recognition that she is innocently prolonging the war. At the outbreak of hostilities Pevely Sadders vouchsafed the nations this shrewd ad-

It is impossible to think of war except in the erms of tobacco. We will not go so far as to say that without tobacco men would be mollycoddles and for peace at any price. But we will aver that it fortifies courage, in soldiers and sailors and civilians and everybody, including mere edde combat, defenseless, unprepared and in despair.

LAW ENFORCEMENT ALWAYS.

While the Post-Dispatch condemns the shifting attitude of Gov. Major with regard to liquor-law enforcement and some of the methods of the police and excise departments in spasmodic and obnoxious lid crusades, we favor unwavering law en-

The law should be enforced all the time. Th Excise Commissioner should adopt reasonable sa loon regulations in accord with law, which will conserve order, decency and morality without interfering with innocent gaiety or annoying lawabiding persons. The Police Commissioners and the Excise Commissioner should insist on obedience to law and reasonable regulations at all times. If reputable saloon and cafe proprietors they would co-operate with the authorities in enforcing the law.

But the methods of law enforcements which afflict St. Louis are contemptible and intolerable. Everyone knows that the Governor winked at law violations and lax enforcement of law until his vice presidential indorsement was put over and the fight was made on the Rumsey candidacy for the National Committee. Saloon men were en couraged to believe that they could violate law and disregard regulations with impunity. Then the Governor's spasm of virtue came and the spy from the lure of the film long enough to attend squad of police began their raids on reputables and disreputables, law keepers and law breakers

> The people are rightfully disgusted. The demand of the cities for home rule and freedom from the vicious influence of State politics is again justified.

The devil is said to have been surprised when he saw the Austrian gun shooting 40-yard flames.

ST. LOUIS DENIED JUSTICE.

The Equalizing Board ignores the powerful showing made by St. Louis on disparities in State taxation and arbitrarily refuses to do justice as between high assessments in this city and low assessments in rural counties. Of this action State Treasurer Deal says:

The St. Louis assessment (equalization) was based on the return of the City Assessor and if it was not right the St. Louis officials were

That is. St. Louis' attempts at a reasonable compliance with the law are a valid excuse for making no increase in the scandalously inadequate assessments of other State subdivisions whose chief concern seems to be to evade the law and dodge taxes.

Under the twisted Deal view, St. Louis' only chance for relief is to engage in the great rural sweepstake to see which county can save the most tax money by assessing property at the most inaccurate, illegal figure.

Do we need a new Constitution and new tax machinery?

THE PUBLIC SCHOOL SURVEY.

By Charlotte Rumbold. The Board of Education, it is said, is seriously considering having a survey of the public school system made before it asks for a new bond issue or a raise in its tax rate.

A survey of the public schools means that educational efficiency engineers from some professional, disinterested outside organization are employed to make a thorough examination of the school system, on both its educational and financial sides, and to submit their findings and rec namendations to the board and the people.

St. Louis' public school system now takes 60 cents out of the city's $2.35 tax rate, more than one-fourth of all the money collected for city money. Apparently so are the Boards of Educa tion of nearly all the large cities in the United States. They all find themselves faced with pyramiding expenses for their public schools. A bond issue to provide more buildings means a higher tax rate to cover the cost of their maintenance.

The alternatives are a radical change in the building program or a curtailed education for some of the children.

To this last no city will agree. The great majority of children are obliged to stop school itors, and that if you deprive them they are hors at the age of 14, and to give them only part time education for any of that short space of years is something neither the city nor the nation could

MR. ANTWINE ON MEXICO. R. ANTWINE thrust his spectacles back and filled his eyes with the beauty of a blooming plum tree across the street. "Let us all hope that Gen. Carranza has some definite notion of what he is going to do with Mexico when we turn it over to him," he said. "Judging by the way we are going about it, the people whose theories of government materially differ with those of the General are going to be pretty well cleared out by the time we get done. There will be no such trouble about getting things going smoothly as Villa has caused. There will be no Zapatistas to whom concessions in belief will have to be made. The General will have clear sailing, and if he is any sort of a mariner at all, he ought to bring the republic into

"Presumably he can do that. When an old schoolmaster and psychological analyst like President Wilson O K's someone for the particular and painstaking job which the General holds, it may be assumed that the person endorsed has certain known qualifications for holding that job down. Trust Mr. Wilson not to have overlooked anything. His enemies have been trying to discover something he overlooked ever since he started for the White House, and they have not turned up anything on him yet. He has a mental process which is no doubt taught in big colleges like the one of which he was president. By that process one covers all the ground. It is like the adding machine and the patent changemaker. There are no mistakes. At the very bottom of the Mexican mess lies an idea. What is that idea? Is it the common people's hunger for some of the land on which they live? Some experts have said so. If it is so, has Gen. Carranza any definite policy looking to the application of that idea? I don't know. I only know that when they were at it hammer and tongs down there Mr. Wilson looked them over and said, 'This is the man.' If he isn't the man, the revolution will go right on. Neither our recognition of Carranza nor our suppression of his enemies will make any difference. Personally, I have great confidence in Mr. Wilson. I like his philosophy, and in this case I feel fairly easy as to his psychology. However, there is no disloyalty in hoping there is no mistake."

Ralph Pulitzer One of Two Men Named by Regulars to At-tend Convention.

NEW YORK, April 3.—Democrats are making a lively campaign for the elecon of delegates to the Democratic nadonal convention from the First Congressional District, who will be chosen in the primary Tuesday.

Ralph Pultizer of the New York World and Rowland Miles were named for delegates by the regular Democratic or-ganization. Maurice Connelly, Borough resident of Queens, named two didates in opposition. The First District comprises Nassau and Suffolk Counties and part of Queens. The part of Queens which Connelly dominates has 4000 enrolled Democrats. The part of the district represented by the regular organization has 14,000 enrolled Democrats.

EDISON America's Greatest Inventor

Mr. Edison possesses one of the most remarkably stored minds of any man who ever lived. One of his constant aids is the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

Did You Miss a College Training?

There is no need to be ashamed if you did; 97 out of every 100 American men and American women have gone

But that is no reason why you should not have a great resourceful FUND of KNOWLEDGE. And there is no place in the world where you can gain this so quickly as from the same place that Edison and Faraday and Joseph Pulitzer and Andrew Carnegie and James J. Hill and thousands of others gained theirs-from the Many persons believe that this magnificent work is rather for "high brows" and college professors and rich folks. The examples already given are sufficient to prove that it is not.

Encyclopaedia Britannica

And in an especial degree the new Eleventh Edition, which cost a million and a half dollars for its editorial preparation alone, has been designed to meet the needs of every-day men and women-particularly those who did not 'go to college.'

But the price for this new edition was a bar to many pocketbooks. So the publishers have made a wonderful new issue, smaller in page and type, but with every line and word, every map and illustration intact-a work absolutely unabridged and unchanged.

This new "Handy Volume" issue you can obtain, for a little while, at one-third the price of the "Cambridge University" issue, and for the first payment of only One Dollar. Have you seen it?

It is on view in the different styles of binding, and may be compared, volume by volume, page by page, with the higher priced Cambridge University issue, at 60c or more stores throughout the country. SEE SETS AND LEAVE ORDERS AT

Did not go to College

Neither did James Watt, who perfected the steam engine, nor Faraday, whose discoveries created modern electrical industries, nor McCormick, who made harvesters, nor Arkwright, who invented the spinning jenny, nor scores of other great inventors and men of

Neither did some of the most distinguished and successful figures of our time. Andrew Carnegie had no university training; neither had James J. Hill, the most resourceful railroad genius that America has yet produced. Nor John D. Rockefeller, one of the greatest organizing minds of any age. Neither had Joseph Pulitzer, who came to this country, like Carnegie and many another, as a boy in the steerage, and rose to be the greatest newspaper editor of his time and a multimillionaire.

The Passion of Great Minds

One conspicuous trait is common to all these men. That is a PASSION for KNOWLEDGE. That's why they succeeded. And it is curious to find how deeply almost all of these men have been influenced by the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

Mr. Edison has a set of the new Eleventh Edition always at his elbow.
Mr. Pulitzer bought for himself and his employees no less than 13 sets of this new Eleventh Edition.

George Washington's education was "only elementary and very defective," but he had a set of the Britannica in his library.

It was a chance reading of an old volume of the Encyclopaedia Britannica which led Faraday, then a poor bookbinder's apprentice, to become a man of science and the greatest electrician of modern times.

A Richly Illustrated 130 Page Book About It

(You Won't Put It Down Till You Finish It) If it is not convenient to go and see the volumes for yourself, the publishers have prepared a wonderfully interesting book of 130 pages, entitled "A book of 100 Wonders"—with over 200 pictures-giving you curious bits of information which reveal the Encyclopaedia Britannica from 100 different points of view-and how it may be useful to you. Send your name on a post card or cut the coupon opposite and the book will be sent to you at once.

Bearish Foreign News Fails to Cause Selling; Trading Fairly Active.

By Lensed Wire From the New York Bureau of the Post-Dispatch. NEW YORK, April 3.—The Evening Post, in its copyrighted financial review, wheat Market is Strong.

"In some respects the most interesting market of the day was that for wheat, the price for which opened ic to to a bushel higher and adayneed 2c or more from the opening price. This particular movement probably represents chiefly the speculations of the market on the character of the Government's first condition estimate of the season, the next Friday.

"That the department's forecast will be low as compared with recent years, is well enough assured aiready; the actual news from the growing winter wheat, during the past two months, has left no doubt on that point. But the grain market had already discounted this condition, before its close last week, bu a rise of 10c a bushel in the preceding fortnight, and at present the Chicago Board of Trade seems to be wagering on what the condition percentage will actually be.

"In the grain trade, the consensus of opinion has appeared to be that winter's crop average status, at the close of March, would be represented by a figure slightly below 89, foreshadowing, unless under favorable weather conditions hereafter, a harvest nearly 200,000 bushels under last year's actual yield, but the speculative trade did not rest content with this today.

"Whereas, two of the private experts predicted a condition of 78 per cent, a third prophesied 72%, and the market moved accordingly. This is the usual experience, on the eve of the first Government forecast, but it also means that crop uncertainties will henceforward cut a larger figure in financial calculations—just as presidential uncertainties will perform the same service still later.

"To the philosophical observer, there is something to admire in the orderly precision the chronometric time adjustment, with which the speculative community arranges its emotions of the season."

PAVING CASE HEARING ENDED

The trial of the State street (East St. Louis) paving case in the Circuit Court at Belleville was closed Monday after the arguments of counsel for objectors and for the city were heard.

The question of benefits was the only thing taken up. There were 80 objectors, but only 15 took the stand. Fifteen witnesses were also introduced by the city, among them Mayor Mollmann. The paving, which is to be of brick, will cest approximately $300,000 and will join with the paving of the Belleville rock road, making 14 miles of paved street, from St. Louis to Belleville.

St. Louis Union Trust stock was ½ point down on trades at $370 and $369.50, but National Bank of Commerce was firm at $1.03.25 bid, $105 asked. Other bank and trust shares were quiet. Bonds were about steady on the issues mentioned.

Defeat Taxpayers' Ticket With One Possible Exception Tomorrow.

The city administration of East St. Louis today arranged to throw all its support into the election tomorrow in an effort to elect the ticket. The city hall was urned into a campaign headquarters. Maurice Ahearn, secretary to Mayor Moliman, is in active charge of the campaign.

The administration leaders today were claiming that they would elect all their ticket, with the possible exception of the Councilman in the Fourth Ward. They admitted, however, that the fight for Assessor would be a hard one. The Taxpayers' Protective party leaders said the prospects were bright for electing the entire tickt.

The Taxpayers' candidates for Councilmen are: First Ward, Solomon Ernst; Second, George Dickmeier; Third, William Greeley, and Eighth, Edward Heggeman. Assessor Michael O'Day is a candidate for re-election.

The administration candidates are: First Ward, Edward Cloud; Second, Philip Minette: Third, John Haggerty; Fourth, J. L. Lang; Fifth, John Fritz; Sixth, Henry Bischoff; Seventh, W. F. McNary; Eighth, Herbert King; Assessor, George Moore.

in Balloting Tuesday.

Speeches will be made in many parts of East St. Louis tomorrown inght on the eve of the municipal election Tuesday.

City Attorney McGlynn and John Minock, who was defeated by McGlynn for the office at the last election, are campaigning together in behalf of the Taxpayers' Protective ticket. A number of men who were leaders in the Mollman campaign a year ago are opposed to him now. One of them is Maurice Joyce, former banker and once a candidate for Mayor.

The Taxpayers' partisans have indorsed the fight Councilman Fowler is making for lower gas rates, and their speakers are attacking Mollman and his Councilman for their failure to support Fowler.

William Kissell, 19 years old, of Renault, Ill., was acquitted at Waterloo yesterday in the Circuit Court of a charge of murdering his father, Henry Kissell, 64 years old, in April, 1915. The jury deliberated 12 hours. Kissell was a farmer, living near Renault, 18 miles south of Waterloo. In a quarrel with his father the youth struck him on the head with a neckyoke and fractured his skull. The circumstances as related at the trial were that the young man's sister had come home from Mount Vernon. Ill., and wished to be taken to see her married sister living several miles from the Kissell farm. The boy was hitching a horse to the buggy, when his father, angry because the horse was being used, went into the stable with an iron poker. The boy's mother testified that the elder Kissell threatened to kill the young man and the latter defended himself.
